Dear Interdance Readers,

Peace. Welcome to the land of musical ecstasy where different sounds and frequencies rule the inner and outer body experiences of our alien life force. Where you can dance for hours on end just by embracing the frequencies being pumped out of our bodies.

Feel the energy rushing through every nerve fibre on you, causing you to jump, scream, shout, smile. "For Petes sake smile".

Dance until you can feel the build up of electrical energy in your autonomic nervous system to the point where you can feel your inner being start to release itself from its cele and become a field of energy beyond your wildest experiences.

Oh yes please be advised, this is a health warning that too much electrical energy can cause damage to your health. You have been warned. Music is the real drug.

A.L.F.

1 of Millions.

"Hello to Rani + Wayne! Here's something to stick up on the wall.....keep counting!"

from Sarah.

Profile

Ellis Dee (Captain Toffee Apple)

Ellis Dee born in Code younger than Pigbag? Is this true?

Yes! (but not alot though, I know!)

Where did you start DJing?

I used to do parties at local halls when I was about 15/16, but most people will remember me from the Rave at the Cave in Elephant & Castle - late '87, early '88.

How do you see the Dance Scene progressing?

That is a question I don't think I could answer accurately, but I think if there's too much emphasis on the Ragga Tip the Rave Scene (as we know it) will fade away! I do like to play some Ragga tunes but I can't take some of the attitudes that go with it!!

What other DJ's do you rate?

All of the professional DJ's apart from one - that should keep you guessing!!

What are your favourite tunes, old and new?

I can't think off hand but the ones that come to mind are:

- 1) Come with me / NDX and the Badman
- 2) She's breaking up + Boom Box / Bittin' Back (Micky Finn)
- 3) Bas D Congo / Can't remember artist!
- 4) Psychosis / Psycothropics

What is your most embarrassing moment?

It was at Perception at Wisbech when I was cuing a record up and needed to have both headphones on as the mixer wasn't very loud! What I didn't realise was that the record the crowd were listening to was continually jumping. Eventually Easy Groove came to the resCUE!! (get it?)

Where else have you played?

Spain, France, Switzerland, Scotland, Wales & Ireland. Mensa was supposed to take me to Columbia but he couldn't afford the expenses bill!!

What are your plans for 1993?

I don't normally make too many plans as in this game anything could happen in the next half hour!!

Over and out!!
